

KONGELBAK

ANGELA KONGELBAK
Graphic Design | Art Direction

"We hired Angela after a 20-year relationship with our previous designer ended. She exceeded our expectations from the get-go. She understood our needs from both the business and the creative perspectives. The concepts were excellent and the final delivery was perfect. I recommend Angela without hesitation."

Susan McDonough: marketing, Hackett-Freedman

"Angela was a great part of Fox Parlor for over 3 years, not just producing great creative, but also being part of the growth and nurturing of Fox Parlor. She is willing to step in and pick up slack where needed, and is an actual real-life great combination of self-starter and team player. She works very efficiently, and in stressful situations manages herself and others around her really well."

Isabelle Englund-Geiger: owner, Fox Parlor

"As a graphic designer, [Angela] is able to take the faintest creative concept I have and flush it out, while creating innovative, exciting work in no time at all. And as an art director, she is totally on point - she balances the tightrope act of knowing what she wants while still allowing and inviting others' creative input."

Lydia Daniller: owner, Lydia Daniller Photography

"Angela Kongelbak is a creative professional, keywords being "creative" and "professional". Whenever I learned that Angela was the designer assigned to one of my projects, I relaxed before the work even started. She always provided great design options, and her consistency in meeting deadlines was fantastic. A+, gold stars and so on..."

Bethrenae Tribble: owner, Au Fait Writing Services

"Angela is fantastic! She understands messaging and art and can marry the two. She can manage the client and deliver on time and above expectations."

Ridge Sampson, owner, Sycle.net

"I worked with Angela on a project to consolidate all our online marketing creative for the Americas. She did a great job in putting together various creative briefs and ideas. It was a pleasure working with Angela on this, we saved at least half a million dollars by streamlining this process."

Ursula Ayrout: marketing, Business Object / SAP

"Creativity is definitely Angela's strongest attribute. Time and again on project after project she pulled a creative-rabbit out of the hat and simply dazzled clients. I have no hesitation recommending her and please contact me for further information if needed."

David McGrane: owner, Ozone SF

"Angela's dedication to producing outstanding work is apparent with each project that moves through her hands. She has a way of turning the mundane into well thought out, functional, gorgeous design. Her energy, drive, and personality are the other perks you are lucky enough to witness when you work together. Angela is one of the best designer's I've worked with in my years of Project Management."

Caroline Lowry: senior project manager, Fox Parlor

"I worked closely with Angela for over three years, during which I never ceased to be impressed with her creativity and professionalism. As Art Director, she seamlessly combined her innate leadership abilities with innovative problem-solving techniques, always driving the design team toward exceptional results."

Julia Shafer: designer, CBS Interactive

"Angela has that priceless combination of creative talent and attention to detail. As a result, her designs meet strategic objectives, are executed flawlessly and wow our audience. I wouldn't hesitate to hire her for any project."

Jennifer Benz: owner, Benz Communication